The unofficial is perfectly fine.

Good morning,

I finished yesterday and Kim signed. I can send to you, but they will be watermarked Unofficial until they are approved. They will not be approved until the first meeting in April. I will scan them in this morning and watermark.

Will the unofficial suffice? Or would you rather wait for them to be approved?

Sincerely,

It just dawned on me - do the minutes have to approved in the next meeting before you can send them out?
